

THE U.S. IN WORLD AFFAIRS: The Cold War & Beyond

A lecture series organized by the Richard M. Krasno Distinguished Professorship in co-operation with the Department of History and the Center for European Studies

FALL 2012

All talks will take place in Hamilton Hall Room 569

Tuesday, September 11, 3PM

Prof. Richard Immerman (Temple University)

"Covert Operations, Intelligence Analysis, and the Making of the CIA: A Dynamic for Failure"

Monday, October 8, 4PM

Prof. Lloyd Gardner (Rutgers University)

"A View of the Imperial Presidency: Developments from Korea to the War of the Drones"

Tuesday, October 23, 4PM

Prof. Mark Kramer (Harvard University)

"Cold War Myths and Realities: Understanding Today's Threats and Challenges in Historical Perspective"

Tuesday, November 27, 4PM

Prof. Michael Hunt (UNC Chapel Hill)

"U.S. Nationalisms and the World: Thinking about a Country in Disarray"

All are welcome • No RSVP required

For further information, please feel free to email Prof. Klaus Larres -- k.larres@unc.edu